THE LATEST REPORTS FROM AUGUSTA.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

The Capitol Crowded.

AUGUSTA, Jan 8 The largest crowd that ever resided in this way to the State House began to move thitherward as early as eight o'clock this morning The police at the Capitol were without badges and no appearance of bearing arms. There was a pe fect jam in all the corridors, halls and at ways, and it was with great difficulty that those allowed to enter the legislative halls pressed their way thither. There were very many vacant seats in the House, as the Republicans carried out their programme and kind away. A few only moving about in the rear of the hall No disturbance whatever occurred. At a quarter to nine the Assistant Clerk of the House, W. E Gibbs, called the roll for the selection of seats. The Republicans did not respond to their names neither did the Fusionists who have been reported as non affiliating. As a quorum was conceded in the Senate, public interest attached to proceedings in the House, the galleries of which were crowded

Proceedings in the Senate Chamber.

At ten o'clock the Senators elect were called to order by Samuel W Lane, Secretary of the late Senate. Prayer was offered by Rev Samuel P Upjohn Episcopal pa tor of this city. The roll was called and all the members, without exception responded to their names.

Senator Locke, of Cumberland, at once gained the floor and read a protest from the Republican members against the Senate proceeding, but the secretary refused to entertain the motion and a message was sent to the Governor and Council informing them that the members elect of the Senate were present for the purpose of being qualified. The Governor and Council appeared and the oaths were administered.

Senator Locke then renewed his motion but the Secretary would not entertain it, and that body proceeded to the election of President of the Senate, the Republicans refusing to serve on committees or participate in the election of officers.

The Senate elected James D. Lawton President, a protest being put in by Republican members that the election was not by legally elected members of the Senate, and the Senate completed its organization by the choice of A. G Andrews Secretary, Francis W. L. Green Assistant Secretary, Messenger, James Devine, Assistant Leslie F Keene.

Mr Locke presented an order that a committee of seven be appointed to take into consideration the election of members Passed by a vote of 18 to 13.

Proceedings in Representatives Hall.

In the House Assistant Clerk Gibbs proceeded to call a certified roll of members Mr. Hale took the floor and claimed that certain legally elected members of the House from cities are not on the roll and moved that they be included. That led to a lengthy speech from Mr. Hale and objections from the other side.

Mr Hale was ruled out of order by the Assistant Clerk who refused to put the motion of Hale that members from cities be admitted.

The Republicans withdrew from participation in the proceedings and a message was sent to the Governor and Council stating that a quorum of members of the House were present ready to be qualified. There was very great amusement and during Mr. Hale's remarks the most uproarious applause. The Governor appeared and proceeded to qualify members. He subsequently announced that 76 members being a quorum had taken and subscribed to the necessary oaths and were the regular and duly constituted House of Representatives This announcement was received with wild applause from the Fusionists and with surprise from the Republicans. Governor Garcelon said that he put into their hands the opinion of the Supreme Court as well as the opinion of gentlemen from certain cities claiming seats and invoked their careful consideration of the same. Three cheers were given for Governor Garcelon followed by prolonged hisses.

A House proceeded to organize by the election of John C. Talbot Speaker, by a vote of 72, no quorum.

Mr Hale objected but was overruled and Talbot was conducted to the Chair. Three cheers were given for Mr. Hale. W. J Gibbs was chosen clerk by a vote of 74

Mr Hale again raised the point of no quorum but was again overruled. The Republicans claim fraud in counting the quorum and that names of persons not present were signed to the list. E Carleton Cheever was chosen as Assistant Secretary by a vote of sixty eight and again the point was raised that there was no quorum and again it was overruled.

The quorum is claimed to be made up of 70 Fusionists and 1 Republican, Eugene Hale. The Fusionists not participating are Sproul of Veazie, Voter, of Farmington Snow, of Skowhegan.

The question of notifying the Senate of the organization was debated, Mr. Hale taking the ground that there had been no legal organization of the House and no other body could be informed thereof. He was overruled.

The protest of members from the five disfranchised cities was presented by Mr. Hale. He proceeded to address the House in an impressive and telling speech, urging that the patient people of Maine are waiting with the most intense anxiety for a settlement of these cases. The only way to allay the great excitement prevailing is to admit these members who are clearly elected according to the expressed decision of the Supreme Court. This course will alone propitiate the people of Maine. He moved that the House go into Committee of the Whole and consider the cases. The Legislature ought not to take a single step until evenhanded justice is done.

The House refused to go into Committee of the Whole, five voting in the affirmative and the matter was referred to the Committee on Elections, when such committee is appointed. The Farmington and other cases were pursued with the same result.

Mr. Dickey remarked that the Supreme Court had nothing to do with the action of the Legislature, which drew forth an eloquent appeal from Mr. Hale, asking that the Constitutional barriers be not swept away. He said that the officers elected, or laws passed by this body as now constituted would not be legal.

At 3 o'clock, the House adjourned.

EVENING DESPATCHES.

The Order at the State House.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 7. The good order at the State House to-day was due largely to the force provided by Sheriff Libby and Mayor Nash. At the urgent request of Major General Chamberlain, Governor Garcelon this morning sent for Mayor Nash to consult with him on matters of public safety and at the Governor's request and the co operation of Mayor Folsom a police force was placed under his command. To avoid any conflict of authority the badges were removed from the State House police and all needed duty was performed by the local police, aided by Sheriff Libby's force.

Review of the Day's Proceedings.

The principal interest at the State House to day centred in the popular branch, the proceedings in the Senate hardly reaching a ripple of excitement The Fusion Senators made a marked concession in voting 16 to 13 to refer the matter of counted-out members to a special committee to act at once. The committee will probably be named to-morrow.

Scenes in Representatives Hall—Withdrawal of the Republicans.

There were scenes in the House never before witnessed in New England as the single Republican Representative qualified, Hon. Eugene Hale, poured the hot shot unmercifully into the ranks of the opposition. His defence of the Judiciary was simply grand and is one of the best efforts of his life The supreme moment came when the Assistant Clerk refused to put the motion to adjourn and Mr. Hale standing upon a desk put the motion himself which was followed by deafening applause and the immediate withdrawal of the Republican members The whole audience rose and there followed a tremendous storm of applause The audience seemed to be largely on the side of the Republicans while the Fusionists were timidly silent, but resolute and determined to stick to their position and carry out their plans. They felt safe under shadow of certificates and the form of law though they imagined of the substance.

An Ephemeral Triumph.

The result of the day was really a triumph for the Fusionists, but the Republicans saw it will be ephemeral. How amid so much excitement and intense feeling good order could be preserved was a marvel.

The Republican Plan

The Republicans held a secret caucus to night to determine on future action, at which there was a full and free interchange of opinion. It is thought that the Republicans will all qualify to-morrow and participate in the Legislative action, fighting for their rights, inch by inch.

General Notes

The story is started that the Fusionists will to-morrow deprive Eugene Hale of his seat but on what ground is not known.

Governor Garcelon's term of office expires to night at 12 and the President of the Senate, James D Lawton, will temporarily fill the place. Garcelon stock is talked up for Governor though Smith's friends claim that he contract should be fully carried out.

The Fusionists held a secret caucus to-night and determined to stand to the position gained.

Adjutant General Leavitt has resigned his position and will leave for Washington to-morrow; his place will be temporarily filled by Major Folsom.

W. J Smith, a one armed soldier, assistant messenger of the House last year under the Fusionists, was offered the unanimous nomination this year, but declined saying that he should act no longer with the Fusion party.

RUSSIA

Army Movements

LONDON, Jan. 7. The Pesther Correspondent, which according to a Vienna despatch to the News, denies the reported movements of the Russian army toward the Austrian frontier, is not a sufficient authority to justify the acceptance of the contradiction of the detailed reports of Russian military preparations which come from various points on the Austrian and German frontiers. These reports are believed to excite attention throughout Europe. A pamphlet has just been issued by a Berlin publisher entitled "The Forthcoming of the German-Russian Frontier," wherein the defences of each country are elaborately discussed and the respective advantages of different plans of warfare on either side canvassed. The author is evidently a German military man and the appearance of such a pamphlet, under present circumstances in Berlin is highly significant.

PERU

Prado's Mission

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. Ex-President Prado of Peru who arrived here last night says he is enroute to Europe to make financial arrangements for a more efficient prosecution of the war with Chili. He knew nothing of the reported revolution in Peru and the dictatorship of Pierola until he read it in the New York newspapers last night. It is doubtful if he now goes to Europe.

WEDNESDAY.

The Honest Money League.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 7. The Honest Money League last night adopted resolutions to continue their organization, demanding the repeal of the legal tender quality of the U. S. notes, endorsing the resolutions of Bayard and appointing a committee to go to Washington and advocate their cause before the Finance Committee of the Senate.

OHIO.

Who Succeeds Pugh.

CINCINNATI Jan. 7. The Enquirer views Garfield's nomination as the result of the popular will rather than political scheming. The people would not permit the nomination of anyone else.

The Commercial believes it is a mistake in Garfield's going to the Senate. It thinks the next House will be Republican and Garfield ought to be speaker. The leadership of our party in the House is better than a secondary place in the Senate. Garfield is the leader of his party in the House. He cannot expect to rank to the head in the Senate when compared with Blaine, Conkling and others."

NEW YORK, Jan. 7. The Tribune says that Garfield's nomination is a Presidential nomination, he constituted a handsome gift for a Maine.

PILLSBURY'S BRIBERY CHARGE.

ANOTHER BASE FABRICATION.

OBJECT OF THE LIE.

No One Believes It.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 7. The affidavits published in the Standard this morning, alleging that Republicans had attempted to secure the vote of Swan and another Fusion Representative by a payment of one or two thousand dollars, are shown to be the basest fabrications. It is revealed to-day that the whole thing was a canard and thrown in in the early morning of the first day of the session for the purpose of keeping the Fusion line intact. No one believes it now that its object has been partially attained.

A STINGING LETTER.

Judge Cleaves' Retreat is Fresh By Pulsifer

AUGUSTA, Jan. 7. Judge Cleaves of Portland, who was counted into office, in resigning the place says in his letter to the Governor that he cannot consent to hold a judicial position when a plurality of the citizens of the county, however small, under any circumstances, or in any form, have expressed a preference for any other candidate

Serious Questions

MONTREAL, Jan 8. Sir Francis Hincks publishes a letter on questions of annexation and independence. He asserts that any attempt to give any effect to the principles of independence or annexation would lead to civil war.

PORT AU PRINCE

A Spanish Mob

HAVANA, Jan 8. Advices from Port au Prince to the 27th ult state that the Cuban ex-Chief, Alonso, excited other Cuban emigrants living in Port au Prince to hostile demonstrations against the Spanish Consulate and Spanish war steamers in port. The populace became excited and attacked the Consulate. The Government of President Salnave made every effort to disperse the mob.

The police found Macho hid him in a private house. The mob then dispersed. Owing to the hostile attitude of the Spanish war steamers, the Government gave the Consul every satisfaction, promising to banish all Cubans not registered at the Spanish Consulate and also offering to deliver up Alonso and his brother, but it is supposed they have already escaped from St. Domingo.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

WEEK OF PRAYER. This being the week of prayer the subject recommended by the Evangelical Alliance for to-day is as follows:

Thursday, Jan 8 Prayer for Christian education, for the family, and institutions of learning, for Sunday schools, and Christian Associations.

All reports concerning the disappearance of Charles Burdin, son of Chas. M. Burdin, of Wellington, on account of which was given in the WEEKLY, seem to prove more conclusively that he must have drowned in Dick Cove, Moosehead Lake, but no trace can be found which establishes it as certainty.

THE WEEKLY COURIER issued this morning is a number of unusual interest as it contains all the news of the past week and has a double supplement, making sixty-four columns of reading matter in all. Among other matters of particular importance will be found the answers by the Supreme Court to the questions propounded by the Governor. Those who have absent friends to be interested in the political events of the past week can easily post them in relation to the recent transactions, by mailing them the WEEKLY. Extra copies can be obtained at this office to-day.

RUNAWAY. Yesterday afternoon as Mr. Frank H. Lowell was driving on the Hampden road, a horse from Bangor collided with him breaking his sleigh and throwing him out. His horse then started to run and the young lady in the sleigh jumped out The wreck of the sleigh was hanging up that it frightened the horse thoroughly and he made a bolt for the sidewalk colliding with the letter box at the corner of Thorndike's store. He left the sleigh a few rods below this store and then turned off into a side st det and was captured near Stedman & Hatter's soap factory.

DRIVING OFF RATS The latest experiment for ridding a house of rats is furnished by a writer in the Scientific American who says "We can our premises of these detestable vermin by making a wash with yellow copperas and covering the stones and rafters in the cellar with a thick coat of it. In every crevice, where a rat might tread we put the crystals of the copperas, and scatter the same in the corners of the floor. The result was a perfect stampede of rats and mice. Since that time not a footfall of either rats or mice has been heard about the house. Every spring a coat of the same yellow wash is given to the cellar as a purifier as well as a rat exterminator, and no dysentery or fever attacks the family."

FOR THE LADIES. A correspondent at at London of the New York Home Journal says that many English ladies dress plainly, not because they lack taste, and have no dress to be arrayed in costly garments, but that they may have the means of providing for the wants of the ever-enlarging circle of the English poor Artificial bouquets for the corsage are worn both in the house and street, and are seen on the dresses imported from the best Parisian houses. Natural flowers are, however, greatly preferred, and ladies who can obtain them use fresh natural flowers all winter. Small yellow chrysanthemums as bright-tinted as buttercups are as popular as the daisy bouquets worn during the summer, and will remain fresh several days. Large creamy tea-roses are worn with garnet, peacock blue, invisible green, or black toilettes on dressy occasions.

BRADFORD ITEMS. Our correspondent writes Ebenezer Bisbee, an esteemed citizen of this town, died at his residence last Thursday, at the advanced age of seventy-five years. The funeral services were held on Sunday, conducted by Rev. Thomas Elmer.——Frank A. Bickford, M. D., left this place a few days since to fill an appointment as physician at Quapaw Indian Agency, Indian Territory. The Doctor leaves a host of friends behind and carries with him the best wishes of all.——By request of our citizens, the entertainment for the benefit of the Methodist minister was repeated at the Town Hall last Saturday evening. The weather was very favorable for the occasion and the people "turned out well." The different parts were all rendered in a pleasant manner. "The family scene" was received with much applause and the song "Mr. and Mrs. Sailor" caused considerable mirth. The entertainment closed with "The Fairy March," by twelve young ladies.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the First Baptist chapel this afternoon at three o'clock. Prayer meeting at four, to which the public are invited.

SUDDEN DEATH. Tuesday morning an aged man about seventy-two years, named Wm. A. Dresser, who resided in West Buxton, was carrying a bag of apples into a house in Portland when he fell and died. Heart disease was probably the cause. A brother died of the same disease a short time ago. Mr. Dresser was a brother of Mr. Matthew A. Dresser, of Portland and had been a business in this city.

PENOBSCOT AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. The annual meeting of the Penobscot Agricultural Society was held yesterday morning at the Common Council Room and the following officers elected: President, C. M. Freeman, Veazie; Vice Presidents, R. W. Merrill, of Hampden, Rufus Jones, of Hampden, and Stinson Pomlee of Orono; Secretary and Treasurer, B. A. Burr; Trustees, E. H. Gregory, of Hampden, Harvey, M. Smith, of Orrington, C. A. Fawcette, of East Bangor, J. E. Bennoch, of Orono and H. C. Mayo of Hampden.

BANGOR BAND CONCERTS. On Thursday and Friday evenings of next week the Bangor Band will give two gift concerts in Norumbega Hall. The object of these entertainments is to raise funds for the purpose of getting new uniforms, and in order to attract large audiences it is proposed to present an excellent musical programme during the early part of the evening, and distribute some valuable presents at the close of the concert. The musical part of the entertainment will be under the direction of Mr. M. H. Andrews and as his orchestra and the band are now rehearsing constantly, we may expect something rich in that line. The presents to be given away are all of a useful character and will be distributed in a fair and impartial manner. The price of admission will be twenty-five cents and on entering the hall each person will be provided with a small envelope, some containing a number and others a blank. The band certainly deserve hearty recognition at the hands of our citizens and we trust the hall will be crowded on both evenings.

REMARKABLE ICE NOTES. Three hundred acres of ice are now scraped between Hallowell and South Gardiner, and will probably be housed for shipment next season. Tuesday the knickerbockers commenced scraping a new field ——Mr. J. T. Cheesman has been very busy for several months in forming a new ice company, called the Kennebec & Atkins Bay Co, whose field of operation is near Cape's Head, on the Kennebec This company is composed of Boston and Maine capitalists, having an excellent chance for their business, and having already contracts signed for 20,000 tons of ice to be shipped South as soon as thick enough. For the present they will confine themselves to winter shipments for which they have excellent location and extra facilities. The pond is about 140 acres in surface, and known as Dyer's Pond ——Capt. A. Rich commenced running ice into his houses in Farmingdale, Thursday, and has a fine field from twelve to fourteen inches thick This is the first ice run this winter. They stopped running Monday as the ice had worn down during warm weather to less than a foot.

MR. EWER'S STUDIO Yesterday afternoon our reporter visited Mr J. C. Ewer's studio in Rines' block, and passed half an hour most agreeably in examining his paintings, many of which are at Lake exhibition and worthy of the attention of the most fastidious art critic. During last season Mr. Ewer passed considerable time at Moosehead Lake, and the walls of his studio are graced with numerous studies from nature at that place, which excite the admiration of his many callers Among the paintings that attract the most attention are two by J. H. Manly, Esq., of Augusta, one being a magnificent five-pound trout and the other a partridge suspended by its legs Both of these paintings are wonderfully true to nature and the artist has every reason to be proud of them, as they have been the subject of great praise from those who are well qualified to judge of such work. Then there is a painting of a five-pound trout, taken from life, a beautiful work of art, and a group of three trout so faithfully placed on the canvas, that one almost expects to see the water dripping from their sides, as they look as though they had just been taken from the lake. These paintings will be on exhibition a few days longer, at the conclusion of which time Mr. Ewer goes to New York, and he will be pleased to see his friends at any time. We predict a brilliant future for this young artist.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

JANUARY (CIVIL) TERM.

HON. JOHN APPLETON, C. J., Presiding.
RUFUS SMITH, Esq., Clerk.
WOODMAN PULSIFER, Stenographer.
Wednesday, Jan. 7.

The day was occupied in the trial of the case Carrie A. Gilmore vs. Rose & Howell. When the plaintiff rested her case, the defendants moved for a nonsuit on the ground that no wrong or negligence had been shown on the part of those who were managing the defendant's steamer at the time the plaintiff was run over; and the defendants' counsel cited a recent Pennsylvania case, in which it is decided that the rule requiring steamers to keep out of the way of sailing vessels does not apply to small row-boats, but the reverse is the rule, requiring row-boats to keep out of the way of steamers. The motion was denied by the Court and Mr. Woodard commenced at five o'clock to open the case for the defendants.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Magic Slipper"

Notice is given in our advertising columns of the appearance on Wednesday next of the Corinne Opera Troupe in the operatic burlesque, "The Magic Slipper," under the management of the Ruskin Club. There will be two performances, a matinee in the afternoon and in the evening. The company numbers thirty, headed by the charming "Little Corinne," who established herself as everybody's favorite when in this city last Fall with the Murphy Minstrels Pinafore Co. Her rendering of the role of "Cinderella" is said to be even more artistic than her "Little Buttercup," if possible. Among the other principals are Blanche Sherwood, the original "Topsy" of the Juvenile Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., the Daly Brothers, well known in Boston, and Master Crowley, the boy soprano. F J. Eustis is the Musical Director, and the piece is given under the supervision of Mrs. Jennie Kimball. Seats can be secured at D. Bugbee & Co.'s for either performance on and after Saturday next, as per schedule of prices in advertisement.

NOTES.

The new Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "The Pirates of Penzance," has become a great popular success in New York.

Harry Hastings, of California, who are doing a fine business on the New England circuit, will appear at the Boston Theatre next Saturday night.

"There is no theatre in America, except the Boston Museum and Wallack's, where old comedies can be satisfactorily performed any more," says Truth, with regret.

Lotta, while giving testimony in a St. Louis lawsuit, was asked: "What is your age?" "People might not believe me if I told," she replied, "for some say that I am 35." That was the only answer she would make.

The Ruskin Club play the Corinne Opera Troupe in Dexter the 13th inst., and the Dexter correspondent of the Bangor Times writes as follows. "The company that is booked here for the 15th, comes under the management of the Ruskin Club of Bangor, and this fact alone is ample guarantee that the entertainment will be first class."

The compliments of the season were thus exchanged by telegraph Christmas night between Cheshire and Florence "Pittsburg—Business unprecedented. Terrible snow storm all day. Everything blocked up. A cool $6892 for the day. Cheshire." "Chicago—Sorry it snowed. Thermometer here 21 below zero, but beat you by $1663. Florence."

"Joshua Whitcomb," who is quite as much a stage favorite this season as ever, and has been meeting with remarkable success everywhere he has shown his honest old countenance, will reappear in this city on the 12th at the Bijou Theatre Since his last visit here, he has twice crossed the continent, finding his popularity not on the wane but constantly increasing.—Boston Herald

A Perilous Voyage.

The Portland Press says "The steamer Brooklyn, Capt. Lindell, of the Dominion Line, arrived off the breakwater at this port, Monday evening about ten o'clock, but did not reach her dock in this city until Tuesday morning.

Capt. Lindell, in a conversation with a reporter stated that in a twenty eight years experience he never encountered such a passage as that just ended. The vessel left Liverpool Dec. 21st, and for the first four days encountered rough weather, but nothing of serious import On the 26th a gale struck the ship, which increased in violence until it became a perfect hurricane. Ties were broke over the steamer fore and aft One tremendous wave struck the house on deck, in which are located the quarters of the officer and first engineer, tearing out the whole front of the house, dashing it with water and driving those officers to seek quarters below in such a hurry that they were unable to take anything with them. So violent was the sea that three of the crew were swept by it and washed all about the deck, and knocked about so that they were badly disabled, although the fortunately escaped without broken bones The sea tore off the top of the skylights and water poured down into the cabin

After weathering that storm the vessel kept encountering gale after gale, that of New Year's Day, nearly approaching in violence to that of the 26th tearing to pieces part of the after house and ripping things generally on deck. On Saturday the ship reached Halifax

Capt Lindell says the ship brought a number of steerage passengers and about 1800 tons of fire clay, the most of it inland for Canada.

Numbers of people visited the ship yesterday to see the effects of the hurricane on the vessel. The Brooklyn is one of the largest steamers that has ever visited Portland, and formerly belonged to the Inman Line.

A Terrible Record of Disaster.

The Cape Ann Advertiser recently contained a three-column article, giving the names of the men lost in the fishery from that port, and the vessels lost during the past year. The record is a most fearful one, so far as loss of life is concerned, and is entirely unprecedented in the history of the business. Scarcely a week during the year, but has witnessed some loss of life or property in the fisheries. Thirteen vessels went down, 141 men were drowned, 36 women were widowed, and 180 children made fatherless, by the single February gale no overwhelming a calamity could not fail to awaken a generous sympathy and $33 216 71 was contributed to feed, clothe and shelter the helpless survivors of the lost mariners. The February gale, however, furnishes but a part of the direful history of the Gloucester fisheries of 1879 In all, 26 vessels, aggregating 1060 tons, comprising over a tenth part of the fishing tonnage of the port, valued at $118,700, all of which were insured on the mutual system for $93,125, failed to return no more and 240 lives have been lost, leaving 88 widows, and 219 fatherless children. There are also two vessels now absent, for which grave fears are entertained, of their safety—the Andrew Leighton and the Harry C. Mackey. If these do not soon return, it will add 21 more to the number, swelling the fearful aggregate to 264 lives. In 1882, 19 of the Gloucester fleet went down, and 163 of her fishermen returned no more, 18 vessels and 120 of men being swept away in one gale, leaving 70 widows and 144 fatherless children In 1873, 31 vessels of a value of $318,700, and 174 lives were lost, nine vessels and 138 men going down in a single storm. In 1866, 27 vessels were lost, valued at $150,000, and 212 men were swept away, and all along through the years since our early settlement, says the Advertiser, disaster has followed disaster, the loss of life and property being a regular incident of our livelihood record. The year 1866 was fortunate in this respect, but two lives being lost and six vessels, in 1861, six lives and nine vessels; in 1862, eleven lives and eight vessels, in 1877-78 lives and seven vessels. Since the year 1830, when the Gorgoes fishery first commenced, there have been lost from this port, 1,119 men, and 400 vessels, valued at $1,600,000.

Business Notes.

FACTS VS. THEORY. In regard to the method of coloring butter. The theory is that cows when well fed and cared for will make yellow butter; the fact is that not one in ten will, except in times of flush pasture.

This is just the reason that the very best Dairymen in this country use Wells, Richardson & Co.'s Perfected Butter Color. We warrant it to add at least five cents per pound to the value of white butter, a return of one dollar for every cent it costs.

BENEFACTORS When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical, but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by a race benefactors. d&ewlw dec23
